Dear Jane:

Thanks for warning me about the opera season. I am sorry to hear that you will have to cut your trip short but I certainly can understand. I was wondering if you would like to plan on staying with me, then if you find that you can stay over Friday night you won't have any trouble about room reservations. I sure would appreciate it if you found that you could stay over Friday night as that way you would actually miss very little in the way of meetings etc.

I hope that you don't mind if I disagree with you and insist that your presence is essential. I really would be glad to put you up over night, no frills, but a good bed.

Sincerely,

Mary
